

The State Board of Education/State Board for Vocational Education held a work session on Thursday, May 17, 2012 in the Cabinet Room of the Townsend Building, Dover, Delaware.

Present were: Dr. Teri Quinn Gray, President; Jorge L. Melendez, Vice President; G. Patrick Heffernan, Barbara B. Rutt, Dr. Terry M. Whittaker, and Dr. Lillian Lowery, Executive Secretary to the State Board of Education and Secretary of Education. Donna R. Johnson, State Board Executive Director, was also in attendance.

Mr. Melendez, State Board Vice President, called the work session to order at 12:20 p.m. The Board was joined by students from Kirk Middle School that participated in the “If You Really Knew Kirk” program. Each student was recognized and received a commendation certificate from the State Board for their participation in the program. Chick-fil-A supplied each student with a gift from the restaurant in recognition of their participation in the program. The students presented personal reflections on the importance of the program and what it has done for their school. Also attending the work session and recognizing the students’ efforts in addressing bullying was Lt. Governor Matt Denn, the Marketing Manager for Dover Chick-fil-a, Cora Blair, and the Chick-fil-a mascot.

The work session adjourned at 12:55 p.m.
